

Scottsdale Show February 2005 and Fames Reflection

We took Fames reflection to Scottsdale to help our promotion for The Color Of Fames breeding promotion. She had not been shown in halter sense October of 2003 and Jeff Schall had in training for only forty-five days before the show. The 4 and over stock hunter class was a classic filled with national Champions. There we seven Color Of Fame gets in the class and one granddaughter. It was an emotional class and was one really tuff class. Color Gets took 1,2,3,4,6, and the granddaughter took 9th. The results are listed below. In the finals it was two Color Of Fame Gets wining the over all Championships with DR. Gilty Pleaser wining the championship and our mare Fames Reflection winning the Champion Reserve. Congratulations to Austin Boggs and Jeff Schall.
